

TBS is now TBS Group AB

Effective since 1st April 2020 TBS operates under the new company name TBS Group AB.

We will provide the same services in glass and carbonfibre composites as before such as:

- Project Management
- Procurement Support
- Ship Design
- Industrial Design
- Technology Transfer programme
- Technology Consulting Services
- Training

We will no longer have any in-house production capabilities, this will be performed by our international manufacturing partners tailored to the needs of our clients.

Our website (www.tbsab.com) is under updating to reflect the new TBS.
